

UNIVERSITY COMMITTEES

SG 1.03

Date of Last Update:

October 26, 2025

Approved By:

- University Academic Senate / Provost

Responsible Office:

Provost Office

POLICY STATEMENT

University committees include committees of the University Academic Senate (see SG 1.03.A), University Governance Committees (1.03.B), and Administrative University Committees (1.03.C).

For the committees with an elected Chair, the Chair is responsible for publishing an agenda at least 4 class days before the scheduled meeting. Minutes of each meeting, with a roster of those in attendance, shall be published after approval by the membership of the committee. The elected Chair of each committee will also send the agenda and approved minutes to the Faculty Governance assistant to be made available in the secure area of the Faculty Governance website.

1. Academic Technology Advisory Committee (Approved by UAS 01/31/16)

- i. Faculty Membership: Faculty membership of the ATAC consists of four faculty members from the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences, one from each of the remaining colleges, and one from the University Libraries. The term of office is three years beginning at the end of the Winter semester. Terms are staggered.
- ii. Student Membership: One undergraduate and one graduate student representative selected by the Student Senate for a one-year term.
- iii. Administrative Membership: Associate Vice President for Academic Affairs, non-voting; one representative from the Registrar ex officio, non-voting; Director of eLearning Technologies ex officio, non-voting; Director of Academic Research Computing ex officio, non-voting; and an Associate/Assistant Vice President for Information Technology ex officio, non-voting.
- iv. Responsibilities: To support the academic mission of the University in its use of technologies and related services impacting teaching, learning, research, and scholarship, including:
  - a) Serve as a liaison between the Grand Valley academic community and Information Technology (IT). In particular, inform and advise IT on factors that affect teaching, learning, and scholarship and communicate technology issues and initiatives to the academic community. b) Regularly review and identify problems with current IT solutions as they relate to faculty, share this information with IT, and monitor the response. c) Provide input and feedback on decision-making related to policies, guidelines, and standards regarding the use of technologies by faculty and students. d) Regularly review current GVSU IT initiatives and provide strategic planning input related to emerging technologies, new trends in education, and associated resource and support needs. e) In partnership with the Faculty Teaching and Learning Center Advisory Committee (FTLCAC) and the Faculty Facilities Planning Advisory Committee (FFPAC), make recommendations regarding funding priorities to the Office of the Provost and IT for more effective use of existing classroom technologies and appropriate use of existing classroom spaces. f) Either the Chair, Vice Chair, or a representative chosen by the committee shall also be a member of the University Technology Council (UTC) and report to ATAC on UTC business and report to UTC on ATAC business.

v. Leadership and Succession Planning

a) The committee chair shall put the election of a chair and vice chair for the following academic year on the agenda for a meeting near the end of the academic year. b) Prior to the meeting, the chair shall solicit nominations for the two positions. Nominations must be accepted by the nominee. Self-nominations are accepted. Nominations may be made at the meeting prior to the election. c) The vote for chair shall be held first. Each member present at the meeting shall vote for one of the nominees. The nominee with the most votes wins the election. In the event of a tie, the winner shall be selected randomly from the nominees with the most votes. Nominees who lose the chair election have the option of being nominated for the subsequent vote for vice chair, which shall be done with the same procedure. d) If there are no nominees for either position, then that position will be filled by a person selected randomly from a pool of eligible candidates that includes all current members. (NB: Not just those at the meeting) who are returning to the committee for the following year and have not served as the committee chair (previously or currently). If this pool yields no eligible candidates, the pool shall be expanded to include all of next year's committee members, excluding the current chair. e) The vice chair will prepare to take over the chair position as necessary.

In the event of removal of the Station Manager, Business Manager, and/or Faculty Advisor, the Station Manager and/or Faculty Advisor must be informed of the charges against him/her and must be allowed to address the SMAB on their own behalf.

7. Journalistic Responsibilities

The University supports the concept of fora through which students are able to communicate with each other as well as faculty, staff, and administration. Student media organizations should be responsible for ensuring that balanced representation of views on crucial issues is accorded to all interested parties.

It is the responsibility of the student media organizations to be governed by the canons of responsible journalism. In addition, best practices as established by the National Association of Broadcasters, the Society of Professional Journalists, and other ethical media standards for broadcast journalism and entertainment programs, shall be followed.

It is the responsibility of the student media organizations to strive to verify the accuracy of all printed and reported matters and to recognize that each publication or broadcast will be subject to the legal exigencies that may arise.

8. Student and Advisor Expectations

The student media organizations and therefore the students are subject to the Student Code of Conduct as well as the Registered Student Organization handbook. The faculty advisors are subject to the Student Organization Advisor Handbook as well as the Faculty Handbook.

9. Authority of the University Board of Trustees

The SMAB reports to the Dean of the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences or their designee, who in turn reports to the Provost and then President. Notwithstanding anything in the Operating Procedures, the University Board of Trustees has paramount authority.

10. Rules

Robert's Rules of Order, Revised, shall govern all proceedings except when they are inconsistent with rules established in these guidelines.

The SMAB shall meet:

1. At regularly established times – established each semester by a majority vote of the Board at its first meeting. The board shall meet at least a minimum of once per fall and winter semester.
2. At the chairperson's request.
3. Within one (1) week of the chairperson's receipt of a petition requesting a meeting signed by three (3) members of the Board.

Two (2) consecutive absences of any voting member may result in removal from the SMAB.

Vacancies created by removal of SMAB members will be filled from an existing nomination list, where possible. Where no nominees are listed, nominations will be solicited from the appropriate governance structure.

All members must be notified at least three (3) days prior to each meeting.

11. Amendments

Upon two-thirds vote of the Student Media Advisory Board, recommendations for amendment shall be to the Dean of the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences. Ultimate authority for approval of any amendment of the Operating Procedures is subject to approval through Shared Governance.
