POLICY STATEMENT

Grand Valley State University (the University) is committed to the creation of an inclusive community where all students are able to learn and grow in the process of shaping their lives, their professions, and their societies. A community is created through identifying and acting upon shared values, and the University has identified seven core values that define our community: Excellence, Integrity, Inquiry, Inclusiveness, Community, Sustainability, and Innovation. We nurture this environment by balancing respect for the rights and responsibilities of the individual, and the rights, responsibilities, and interests of the community as a whole. We expect that all members of the University community will act in a manner that demonstrates respect and consideration for those around them.

The student conduct process within the Office of Student Conduct and Conflict Resolution (OSCCR) is one component of the work of creating our shared community. This Student Code: The Statement of Student Rights and Responsibilities (the Statement) describes behaviors which are inconsistent with the values of and detrimental to the University community. The Statement exists to protect the interests of the community and to challenge and support community members when their behavior fails to meet these standards. Because the University establishes high standards for membership, its standards of conduct, while falling within the limits of the law, may exceed federal, state, or local requirements.
