Japan: Criminal Justice (JCMU)
Open to: All majors

TELL ME ABOUT THIS PROGRAM
EXTENDED Application Deadline (2018 Program): February 23, 2018
Hikone, Japan - We will be studying and comparing social mechanisms in Japan and the United States. Specifically, we will examine formal systems such as police and court systems, and also informal social systems such as family, school and workplace. Our field trips will include visiting a school, courthouse, and police station. We will also review Japan’s history and culture through excursions to Kyoto, Nara, Tokyo, and Hiroshima. This course is open to all majors, both undergraduate and graduate, and no Japanese language skills are required.
