TELL ME ABOUT THIS PROGRAM

Sydney, Australia- Sydney is a vibrant metropolis with an abundance of internship opportunities in a wide variety of fields of study. Although it is Australia's largest city, encompassing over 4 million people, Sydney is easily accessible with its many forms of public transportation and has something for everyone. The country has contributed to the international science and research fields through fascinating discoveries, high quality educational opportunities, and international collaboration. Australia possesses immediate ties to some of the most powerful global economic and industrial exporters in the world. Plus, with inspiring landscapes, diverse cultural identities, and a flair for the creative, Australia has a uniqueness reflected dynamically through the arts.

Placements are available for undergraduates in almost any major who would like to gain valuable work experience.
