Germany: Duale Hochschule Baden-Württemberg (DHBW)
Open to: All majors

TELL ME ABOUT THIS PROGRAM
MOSBACH AND BAD MERCENTHEIM, GERMANY: Founded in 1980, Duale Hochschule Baden-Württemberg (DHBW), formerly Berufsakademie, offers a practice-oriented approach to learning by making companies an integral part of the university system. This program is geared toward students who have been admitted into the Seidman College of Business (SCB) Program for a business major or minor. The international business school has two locations: Mosbach and Bad Mergentheim, which are both in very close proximity. These cities are smaller towns but are surrounded by well-known German metropolitan cities such as Stuttgart, Heidelberg, Nürnberg, and Würzburg. You can take a variety of business courses. All classes are taught in English, and you will have the opportunity to take business classes with German students. German language training is mandatory. In addition to the course work, the University offers many field trips and extracurricular activities.
