A GVSU PARTNERSHIP PROGRAM

Spain: Universidad Carlos III de Madrid (UC3M) Open to: All Majors

TELL ME ABOUT THIS PROGRAM

Madrid, Spain — The University of Carlos III (UC3M) in Madrid, one of Spain's public universities, was founded in 1989. Located on two campuses, Getafe and Leganés, UC3M has the largest offering of bilingual studies in Spain. As an Exchange Student, you can select courses from study programs taught in English and in Spanish. UC3M has over 16,000 students, faculty with diverse backgrounds, and excellent educational programs. Students can easily access Madrid city centre through the public transportation system. Students will have access to many student activities including: recreation, cultural activities, social projects, concerts, exhibits, and more. Note: There may be a limited number of exchange placements available for this program.
